College Folks Alert to Make Visitors Happy

Dinners, Teas, Receptions are Interspersed With Formal
Sessions for Association
Members This Week-end

Many social events are planned for teachers who attend the eighteenth annual meeting of the Northwest Missouri Teachers Association at the College today and tomorrow.

Several entertainments have already taken place. Last evening the Knights of the Hickory Stick gave a dinner at the First Methodist Church. The Coffey-Miller players presented "The Merchant Gentleman" by Moliere in the College auditorium last evening. Today (Thursday) noon, the Newman Club members are serving a luncheon for former club members at the house on West Third street.

The Association for Childhood Education will have a dinner at 6:30 p. m. to day at the Blue Moon Cafe. At 6 o'clock this evening at the Maryville Country Club, the Northwest Missouri

LAVERNE E. IRVINE

School Association will have a dinner.

Teachers who attend the meeting will be entertained with music at 7:45 o'clock tonight when a district orchestra with a personnel of some seventy or eighty students from Northwest Missouri schools will present a program in the College auditorium. Towns represented in the orchestra are: Liberty, St. Joseph, Maryville, Oregon, Mound City, Hamilton, Smithville, Ridgeway, Maysville, Bethany, Camden Point, Lathrop, Rosendale, Edgerton, Savannah and Westboro.

Mr. LaVerne E. Irvine, chairman of the music department of the College, will conduct the orchestra in the presentation of selections from "Tannhauser," by Wagner; "Bourcel," by Bach; "Dance Trepak," by Tchaikovsky; Bolzoni's "Minuet" for strings; "Hungarian Dance" by Brahms; and Guion's arrangement of "Turkey in the Straw." The orchestra will present another concert at 9 o'clock in the morning.

A homecoming dance in the West Library will be held following the last session tonight. The idea of a football game will be carried out throughout the evening. A floor show will be staged during the "half."

Tomorrow at noon, a luncheon for intermediate teachers will be held at the Methodist church, South.

John Krambeck Football Player Dies Suddenly

Pneumonia Fatal to Popular
Young Student---Football Squad Attends Funeral at Atlantic, Iowa

John Krambeck, 17-year-old College freshman of Atlantic, Ia. died about 5 o'clock last Saturday morning in the St. Francis hospital in Maryville. His death was caused by pneumonia.

Having entered the College last September, John immediately reported for football practice. He was a 218-pound regular Bearcat tackle, and played outstandingly in the capacity of his position.

Johnnie, as he was known to his associates, entered the hospital last Friday morning. After having slept most of Friday, he lost consciousness that evening. Although oxygen was administered, Johnnie never regained consciousness.

Krambeck played tackle position in both the Peru and Central College football games and was to have started in the Springfield game last Friday night. When Johnnie reported for football last Thursday evening, Coach E. A. Davis, College director of athletics, noticed him shivering and ordered him to his room. Friday, Dr. F. R. Anthony, College physician, advised Krambeck to report to the hospital as the doctor (Continued on page 8)

Shows Trends Half Century In Education

The school assembly opened Wednesday with a psalm reading by President Lamkin and a greeting to the school board members of Nodaway county. Charles E. Lee, former state school superintendent and now connected with Washington University of St. Louis, gave the principal address.

"The common school had its origin 400 years ago in Europe where merchants started to train children to read and write," Mr. Lee said. "Later when this country was settled by the European people they had the idea that the children should have school training. This was first started by private and church schools but since has been taken over primarily by our public system of taxation."

"From 1870 each decade up to 1930 has seen the number of attendants in secondary schools doubled. The trend then is that education is becoming more extensive. Another trend is one in which schools are being controlled from the state at large. Delaware and North Carolina both have their education along this line. A (Continued on page 8)

THE MISSOURIAN'S Message to the TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

In order to give the schedule of speeches and other parts of the teachers meeting program, THE NORTHWEST MISSOURIAN this week appears one day earlier than the date-line would reveal. This issue of THE MISSOURIAN contains, in the inside pages, a complete program of the meeting, giving the time and place of everything that is to happen these two days. Pictures of people who will hold the "spot-light" on the program today and tomorrow are also displayed within this issue.

Each year, THE MISSOURIAN cooperates to the fullest extent with the College in making the visiting teachers feel "at home" and enjoy the program prepared by the program committee. And this year is no exception. If the staff of THE MISSOURIAN can be of help in any way to teachers today and tomorrow, room 210 is the journal's "home," and the "press" invites you to enter.

WELCOME, TEACHERS.

Rockhurst Here to Meet Eleven Bearcats Friday

Homecoming Teachers Have Chance to See Some Fast
Work Under the Flood-lights Friday Night

Maryville's Bearcats will be host to the Rockhurst Hawks in a non-conference game to be played tomorrow evening on the local gridiron.

Rockhurst, with one of its strongest teams in years, will attempt to stop the ever-improving Bearcats, presenting a hard plunging and passing attack in an effort to stop the Bearcats. Maryville is fresh from a conference victory over Springfield last week, and Central, a non-conference foe, the week before.

Last year, Rockhurst lost a 7-3 decision to the Bearcats. This was one of the local team's best played games in 1934. The visitors hold a win over the strong Baker University team and Missouri Valley College so far this year.

A few injuries hampered the Bearcat's workout in preparation for this game. "Hoss" Flanders, guard, and "Red" Good, halfback, have been nursing bruised spots, but will be ready for tomorrow night's encounter. Wallace Hicks, veteran end will probably watch most of the game from the sidelines, as he is still doctoring his injured foot. Doctors say he will be able to see some service, however.

Ernie Sorenson, star of the Central game will strengthen the backfield for the local eleven and will add much to the scoring punch.

Line play of the Bearcats in the last game was much improved over that of the previous games, especially in the work of the guards.

This will be the homecoming game, and will be broadcast thru the courtesy of station W9XBY, Kansas City. With indication for a good game between two improved teams, local fans and visiting teachers should be out tomorrow evening and boost for another victory.

"The First Snow"

Teachers! Don't go away without seeing the latest addition to our valuable collection of paintings—"The First Snow" by Hobart Nichols. It is on display in the show case at the left of the middle stairway on second floor. The formal presentation was made October 12, in assembly by Kurby Bovard, president of the Class of 1935 from whom the picture is a gift.

Wealth of Noted Speakers to Address District Assembly Attracts Instructors from Northwest Section of State

At its eighteenth annual meeting today and tomorrow at the College, the Northwest Missouri Teachers Association will introduce a number of noted educators. Men of national prominence will address the assembly of present and future teachers.

Programs for departmental sessions will be of exceptional merit. National and sectional leaders will conduct this short seminar on educational problems.

Dr. Albert Edward Wiggam, lecturer, author, and psychologist of New York will address the teachers. He holds an honorary D. SC degree from Colgate University. He holds the honorary L. L. D. degree from Hanover College.

Dr. Wiggam was for a time editorial writer for the Minneapolis Journal. Later he became a member of the editorial staff of National Newspaper Service. He Probably his best known books are: "The New Decalogue of Science," "Exploring Your Mind," "The Marks of an Educated Man," and "Sorry But You're Wrong About It." He is also a contributor to The Century, World's Work, and Pictorial Review periodicals.

Dr. Rollo Walter Brown, author and educator of Cambridge, Mass. will deliver two addresses. Formerly, Dr. Brown was a professor of English at Carleton College and also served on the faculty at Harvard.

In France, on leave of absence, Dr. Brown investigated the methods used in the schools of that nation. Dr. Brown is a member of the History of Science Society and Boston Author's Club. His best known books include: "The Creative Spirit," "Lonely Americans," and "Toward Romance."

Interest is centered in the addresses to be given by Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, pastor of the Central Congregational church at Brooklyn, N. Y., and former president of the Federal Council of Churches in America.

Never before has anyone in the local AAUW been appointed on a national committee of this importance. At present Miss Dow is in New York at Columbia University doing work toward her Ph. D. degree. Miss Dow is present state chairman on International Relations, and spoke on this subject at the national convention of AAUW when it met in Los Angeles last July.

Miss Dow has started a closer relationship of women in foreign countries and this country through establishing correspondence between graduates of colleges.

Astronomers Have Interesting Week

No, you couldn't see them this time! It was too dark, but they were there just the same. Who? Why our youthful astronomers, of course.

Monday evening was a good one for star-gazing, so the group gathered at the old baseball diamond and with the help of Miss Helwig and Mr. Colbert's faithful telescope, they practically looked a hole through the sky, that is, they would have if that were possible.

Those who arrived early enough were able to see Mars before it went below the horizon.

Saturn was especially good, the rings being very clear. Aroturus, the star which was used to light the World's Fair in Chicago, was studied, as was the large double star in the bend of the big dipper.

Miss Helwig pointed out numerous constellations in the sky. Special attention was given to Lyrae and the star Vega. Just when the group was ready to leave the moon appeared, large and red, in the western sky. The telescope revealed an unusually large crater near the edge, and numerous rays upon the moon's surface.

The class is developing quite an imagination which is most necessary in their work. They have ceased to think in terms of thousands, instead they speak constantly of millions of miles and even of light years. Only a study of the subject can reveal the wonders of the celestial sphere and a real appreciation of the very minuteness of the earth when compared with the other heavenly bodies.

THE TEACHERS MEETING

Today and tomorrow are the two days of the eighteenth annual meeting of the Northwest Missouri Teachers Association. Each year, the teachers in this section of the state gather at the College in order to learn certain facts to facilitate the conducting of their schools back home.

The program committee for the annual teachers meeting has never disappointed the assembled teachers from the standpoint of a program, for each year it acquires what it thinks to be the best talent in the country. Last year, the committee acquired many interesting speakers. This year several nationally known educators appear upon the program.

Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, the famous radio-minister, will be here tomorrow. Dr. Cadman comes from Brooklyn, N. Y. Dr. Albert Edward Wiggam of New York City has also been secured by the committee. Aside from his reputation as a speaker, Mr. Wiggam is known for his books and his syndicated newspaper column, "Let's Explore Your Mind."

The committee sent to Cambridge, Massachusetts to secure Dr. Rollo W. Brown, famous author and educator, and to Columbus, Ohio, to secure Dr. Boyd H. Bode, another well-known speaker. Of course, outstanding speakers in their own Association will also address the teachers who are assembled here for these two days.

This is by no means all that will be included on the program. There is to be music by an orchestra from the high schools of Northwest Missouri and by ensembles from the College's own conservatory of music. Mr. LaVerne E. Irvine, director of the conservatory, will have charge of all music during the two-day assembly.

Dr. Joseph Kelly, director of the speech department, was instrumental in securing the Coffey-Miller Players for the teachers meeting. After their excellent performance last evening, the committee should feel proud to have secured the troupe. A homecoming party tonight in the West Library will afford the opportunity for teachers to renew old school friendships.

Departmental sessions will be instructive and entertaining. The orators who appear in the general sessions will in some instances address the departmental assemblages.

The teachers meeting this year promises to be one of the most outstanding in recent years. Everyone in connection with the Association has worked to make it just that!

"This world is suffering today from uncoordinated thought. Never was there more brilliant thinking and never was brilliant thinking more productive of accomplishment, but the thinking and accomplishment of one group are entirely detached from the thinking and accomplishment of another."—Dr. Hopkins, president of Dartmouth college.

JOHN KRAMBECK

Instead of a bright-ray of light shining over the student body and den of the Bearcats last Saturday morning after the victory over Springfield, a dark cloud was hovering there. Death had taken a fellow colleague.

John Krambeck, the ever-smiling, jolly freshman from Atlantic, Iowa, died of pneumonia early in the morning. The sympathy of the entire College is extended to his relatives and many friends.

While "Johnnie" will be missed around the administration building, his absence will be most keenly felt at the gymnasium and on the gridiron. Although a freshman, Johnnie was a regular guard on the Bearcat eleven, and always played a brand of football that would be a credit to any team.

Johnnie was a gentleman. He possessed the ability to make friends on sight.

Johnnie was all-loyal to his school and team, and the school and team will miss him.

HONOR GREAT MISSOURIAN

While many of Missouri's younger generation will not remember the late William J. Stone, the older citizens of the state knew him as a great leader. Last week a monument was unveiled in honor of him. Stone had a long political life in which he became governor of the state and later a United States Senator. It was while in the latter capacity that he showed great courage in defending his principles. Stone was opposed to many of his own party, including Woodrow Wilson, in wishing to keep this country out of the last war.

He was a target of criticism both from the press and the pulpit and some of the newspapers of the country even demanded in their columns that Stone be removed as chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee. He failed in his cause then, but today his countrymen are honoring him for his idealism. One of the inscriptions on his monument reads, "I shall vote against this monstrous mistake, this resolution for the declaration of war, to prevent which I would willingly lay down my life."

He will be remembered along with Bryan and LaFollette for his pacifist philosophy.

SUCCESS

A young man—the fable goes—was out of sorts with his employer and the constant daily grind with its scanty rewards. He consulted a seer who presumed to locate for him the one spot in the wide world where good fortune awaited. To him came a mysterious scroll bidding him not to go roaming for riches, as they could be found in his home city. Following the directions, this youth paced along certain streets, turned into a big building, walked down a long corridor; entered a room; and stopped before a certain desk. Here, the scroll related, he would find success. It was his old desk! Here he had long been drudging daily, meanwhile bemoaning his meager opportunities.

The uncovering of a mighty truth is revealed in this tale. Foolish people wish for "luck," sudden riches, freedom from labor, abundant leisure, but real fortune abides not there. Rather, it is found where work calls to be done; problems to be solved; services to be rendered; emergencies to be met.

Your daily job seems so humdrum—yet your pot of gold is buried there. Your training will help you discover it—hasten its uncovering—lead you to a greater reward.

A future Sam Johnson at the University of Michigan develops a few word definitions: Honest—fear of being caught. Truth—lack of tact. Courage—combination of stubbornness and resignation. Pleasure—one half memory; one half anticipation. Love—one half imagination; one half biology. Moron—one who is content with a serene mind.

Stroller Walks

There have been several unjust accusations of different members of the student body as to the identity of the STROLLER, some of which have nearly caused beautiful friendships to be broken up. Even I have accused one or two of my best friends of writing this column and who should know better than I who is to blame for it, but the funny part is that nobody has blamed me . . .

Mary Ann Bovard and Paul Newby "fell" into the west library Saturday night at the Greek Letter Dance.

Inez Daniels was seen strolling to the dormitory alone last Saturday night after the dance. Inez, what happened to your date?

The Greek Letter Dance was practically a Sigma Mu and Tri Sig affair.

Walter Rulon seemed to be in a "wooling" mood with Mary Elizabeth Adams at the dance! ! ! But Elizabeth wouldn't be "wooded" . . . That's tough, Walter.

Mary Meadows is often seen at the Bearcat Inn. Not because of any gastronomical yearnings, but because of a slight interest in the boy behind the counter with the apron on . . . and it isn't Jack . . . however, John Tabor doesn't have much to say about it . . . we wonder why he didn't go to the dance, probably had to work . . . Mary, how did the head feel Sunday morning? After taking Mary home, DeRonda Moore returned to the dance with another girl . . . Whew! ! What a man.

Velma Cass certainly has a time with her boy friends. She had three dates for the Greek Letter Dance. First, she had a date with "Cotton" Morrow, but for some unknown reason he left town sort-of-sudden like, next she had a date with "Tub" Newby, but he did likewise. At the last minute Velma appeared with Eldon Thompson. If Wooderson hadn't been visiting here over the week-end she probably would have had a date with Seyster . . . I give up . . . you figure it out for your self.

"Dusty" Rhoades and Dorothy DePew were seen going to the College orchard apparently for some apples, but Ha! Ha! . . . we knew the apples had been picked.

Evidently Betty Marshall isn't a kleptomaniac, for she can't take it as far as the Brown's are concerned, but we know she is going home to see her boy friend and his name is Brill.

It seems as if an Alpha Sig pledge is beating an active's time. How about it Benson? Never mind Lucy Mae, because in case you should decide to use the same tactics that Betty Marshall uses, i. e., going home when the girl friend comes to town, you are saving a long trip.

The Green and White Peppers followed some well directed advice that was given in this column last week and have pledged three new members. Nice work "Peppers."

Bearcats Win First Conference Game Friday Night

Springfield Bears In 7-0 Defeat On Our Field

A deceptive running attack and forward passes that click for large gains, opened the way to victory for the Bearcats in their conference game last Friday night. The Bearcats crossed the goal line but once, but that was enough to beat the Springfield Bears, 7 to 0, in the first MIAA game of the season for Maryville.

Rulon to Zuchowski, a now great passing combination, was directly responsible for the Bearcat's touchdown. Rulon shot a pass to Zuchowski who took it out of a crowd of Maryville and Springfield players. Good blocking by the Bearcats opened the way, and Zuchowski crossed the goal line for the winning touchdown. Rulon kicked the goal for extra point, and that gave Maryville the 7-point margin.

Rulon gained many yards on spinners and by tearing through the opposing line. Yates made large gains through the line and around the ends. He was closely challenged for the largest ground gainer by Bill Bernau and Wilbur Moore.

Luke Palumbo and Lloyd Flanders were featured on the defense for the Bearcats, but the whole Maryville line played a much better game than the previous week.

This victory places the Bearcats in a tie for first place in the conference with Cape Girardeau, Cape having beaten Warrensburg in a closely contested battle at Cape last Friday.

The summary:

Bearcats Position Bears
Huntsman—LE—Spradling
Courter—LT—Hrebec
Flanders—LG—Montgomery
Palumbo—C—Mosley
Rouse—RG—Lewis
Livingston—RT—Fox
Zuchowski—RE—Spillers
Rulon—QB—Stephens
W. Moore—RH—Richeson.
Yates—LH—Berry.
Bernau—FB—Newman

Yards gained from scrimmage, Maryville 201, Springfield 104; First downs, Maryville 16, Springfield 6. Forward passes attempted, Maryville 15, Springfield 13; Maryville completed 7 for 88 yards, Springfield 3 for 37. Maryville intercepted two passes. Punts, Maryville 9 for an average of 32 yards. Punts returned, Maryville 31 yards, Springfield 27. Penalties, Maryville 7 for 55 yards, Springfield 2 for 10 yards. Fumbles, Maryville five recovered 5, Springfield 3, recovered 3.

Officials: Wulf, referee; Campbell, umpire; Osborne, head linesman.

DOPE BUCKET

By J. O. KING

It seems that Rolla and Kirksville stepped just a little out of their class when they took on the strong St. Louis University. The University boys beat Kirksville 37 to 7, then turned around and whipped Rolla all over the field last week to the tune of 38 to 0.

Rolla opens their conference play Saturday when they play the Springfield Teachers in the first game the Miners have played in the conference since they were admitted.

This looks like a good game but I'll take Rolla; they appear to be a little stronger than the Bears.

Cape Girardeau and Warrensburg

Bearcats Players Pose to Give Audience An "Eyefull"

burg battled to a 13 to 16 score in what must have been one of the best dishes on the grid menu last week. It's certain the Mules have a much stronger team than last year, when they finished in the basement of the conference. Missouri scored in the last quarter to beat them 7 to 0. Then Cape, who is supposed to be the class of the MIAA this season, are able to beat them only in the last two minutes—and then on a field goal.

Warrensburg plays Kirksville tomorrow, while Cape is playing a non-conference opponent—Batesville, Ark. College. I'll take Cape and Kirksville—but the Bulldogs will have their hands full to win over those Mules.

The Springfield Bears were not as strong as they were doped to be—or so it seemed last week when the Bearcats took a game from them. Maybe the Bearcats are a little stronger than the Springfield dopsters judged them when they were rated at the bottom.

Just to remind you that there is a game here tomorrow night—let me say that there are a few places that can be had yet on the Maryville side of the field and there are plenty of places for those who can loosen the vocal cords and make a little noise.

Let me take this opportunity to say—there are a few boys that work hard to make a noise at the football games, but mostly, they are yell leaders. Those fellows have worked hard but they can stand some improvement—can't we all!

Have you seen the girls of the WAA with hockey clubs skillfully dribbling and passing the ball down the field? They are preparing for the hockey tournament which will be held after six more weeks of practice. Anita Aldrich is the head of this sport.

The four o'clock tapping class has finished their first dance routine to "The Glow-worm."

Abe Gets a Bath

Some men students who came strolling down the hall on the second floor late last Saturday afternoon had the pleasure of viewing a most extraordinary spectacle that is usually confined to extreme privacy. Orville Livingston was giving Abe Lincoln his bath. The celebrated ex-president has the Saturday night bath habit, too.

Buford Jones, former Bearcat, attended the Maryville-Springfield football game last Friday. He says he is keeping in shape and intends to return to school sometime.

Views of the News

Civilization vs. Savagery

Mussolini's invasion of Ethiopia is apparently for two reasons. One is to gain natural resources for his people and the other is to civilize a savage people. But one of Ethiopia's rulers has a different idea. He says: "The Italians have gassed our troops. Five persons have died and I don't know how many have been disabled. They call us savages, but we cannot wage such warfare. We are not savage enough to like your civilization. They say we are masters of cruelty, but we cannot continue on an equal footing with such tactics."

Divorces

Divorce lawyers may as well stay out of Russia, Miss Marie C. Cannon, a Kansas City lawyer, advised nineteen members of the Women's Bar Association of Kansas City at the Hotel President.

"There is nothing to a Russian divorce except agreement," Miss Cannon said. "If your husband sues you for divorce in Russia and you don't appear at the divorce bureau, you'll soon get a letter telling you that you no longer have a husband. But Russian husbands are so easy to get you won't worry about it."

"Russians are making one of the most daring experiments of mankind. There is greater interest in art, literature and music and progress is being made in education and medicine," Miss Cannon said.

Reason Will Replace Emotion

The appeal to reason rather than emotion will play a more important part in next year's campaign, in the opinion of Louis McHenry Howe, a secretary to President Roosevelt.

"The campaign next year," he predicted, "will see a far more intelligent use of the radio. There will be less spellbinding, less soap-box stuff. The speeches will be comparatively few and important. There will be more intention on both sides to keep the platforms down to what they really intend to do."

"All the old issues," Howe continued, "have fallen down. Tariff has simmered down to a compromise, both parties taking about the same attitude. The Republicans are trying to steal our clothes on States' Rights. But go back through the president's speeches and you will see that he has preached a new doctrine in the relation of a government to its people. If we take away from the strong man the right to hit the little man over the head with a club, is that too great curtailment of liberty?"

Cheap Tickets for St. Joseph Music

Do you believe in miracles? Have you ever been offered a round trip ticket to St. Joseph and the opportunity to enjoy an evening's entertainment for only $1? Perhaps you think that would be a miracle; but it is nevertheless true!

Through the interest of President Uel W. Lamkin and the assembly committee, an opportunity is offered the students to enjoy a series of musical concerts in St. Joseph at the minimum of expense. It is urged that students attend these concerts because of the quality of the entertainment, and the nominal price. Transportation to and from St. Joseph ordinarily amounts to $1.50.

These concerts, made possible through the Civic Music Association, will be in four series. The first of these series will be given October 21. Miss Rose Bampton, contralto, will be presented. She will be accompanied by Miss Corinne Frederick.

Among other numbers, Miss Bampton will sing the famous Aria: "When I Am Laid in Earth," from the opera "Dido and Aeneas" by Henry Purcell. Those who plan to attend the concert are: Mr. Hugh G. Wales, Miss Marian Kerr, Amber Harriman, Morris Vadon, Aleta Burnham, Marjorie Murrey, Jack Albaugh, and Ted Tyson.

Credit Union is Teachers Saving

"Not for profit, not for charity, but for service" is the aim of the Northwest Missouri Teachers Credit Union. This union is under the supervision of the commissioner of securities in the office of the Secretary of State of the state of Missouri.

The Credit Union has four purposes. 1. To promote thrift by receiving the savings of the members in payment of shares. 2. To make loans to members through the credit committee. 3. To invest the savings of the members in accordance with the credit union law of the state of Missouri. 4. To exercise those functions described in the laws of the state of Missouri authorizing the organization of Credit Unions.

Membership in the Credit Union is open to those who are employees in the public and state schools in the Northwest Teachers college district. Membership is determined by (1) election by Board of Directors, (2) subscription to one or more $5 shares and by the payment for them in full or in part (not less than $1 per month per share, (3) an entrance fee of twenty-five cents.

At the close of the fiscal year, the Northwest Missouri Teachers Credit Union may declare a dividend from net earnings. Dividends may be credited or paid in cash, at the option of the shareholder.

The Credit Union is the teacher's bank! Start a savings account with it during this teacher's meeting. There will be a secretary in room 115 at the hours 11:00-12:00, 1:00-2:00 and 3:00-5:00 who can start your account.

Miss DeLuce Works for State Art Survey

For the last five or six years, Miss Olive S. DeLuce, chairman of the Department of Fine Arts, has been conducting a survey of the art in the state of Missouri—the results of which eventually will be published. At present the states of New York and Indiana have such surveys completed. The art teachers in the state have been co-operating in the survey, and teachers and students, both because of their knowledge and interest in art, are asked to aid all they can by sending in information. In order to make the survey complete, Miss DeLuce needs to have reports from every part of the state. Anyone who has something of interest to contribute please write to Miss DeLuce at the State Teachers College, Maryville Mo.

If the object falls in the classification of architecture, the following information will be desired: Name of building, address and owner, architects, style and material, size and date. If the example is a piece of sculpture, please give the following information: Name of sculpture, location and owner, name of sculptor, height without base, and the date.

Miss DeLuce also requests information about artists, architects, sculptors, art teachers, craftsmen, whether or not they are residents of the state, or native born and now residing elsewhere, and whether they are living or dead. Another object of the survey is to get a complete report of all the schools of art in the state. The information needed in this regard is the name of the school, the address, and length of the course.

Dad's Day Draws Many to College

In spite of the weather conditions, a large number of fathers of College students gathered at the College to enjoy the annual Dad's Day program.

The Dad's Day assembly, at which Dr. O. Myking Mehus, chairman of the dad's day committee, presided, was opened at 10 o'clock by a number of marches by the College band under the direction of Mr. Alphonse Gailewicz. This was followed with the invocation by Dr. Harry G. Dildine.

After Dean Miller, president of the student senate, welcomed the dads to this annual event, the Varsity quartet composed of Robert Lawrence, Morris Yadon, William Somerville, and Virgil Woodside, sang two numbers. Following the songs by the quartet, President Uel W. Lamkin welcomed the fathers in behalf of the faculty.

Next on the program was "The Bearcat March" by the College band. This march is a composition of Dr. C. D. Humbert of Barnard. Then Kurby Bovard, president of the senior class of 1935, presented a painting, "The First Snow," by Hobart Nichols, to the College as a gift from the senior class.

The assembly program was closed with a presentation of a one-act play, "Where but in America," by the O'Neillian Dramatic club. The play was directed by Miss Louise Bauer.

At noon the dads gathered at Residence Hall with their sons and daughters for a luncheon and a program. Virgil Woodside, chairman of the student social committee, was master of ceremonies.

Dr. Uel W. Lamkin, president of the College; Dr. Jesse Miller, vice-president of the Board of Regents, Dr. J. C. Miller, dean of the faculty, and Dr. O. Myking Mehus were guests of honor at the luncheon.

The hosts and hostesses at the luncheon tables were: Miss Frances Feurt, Miss Monica Lash, Miss Betty Bosch, Miss Frances Tolbert, Miss Virginia Judah, Miss Eleanor Crator, Miss Charlotte Smith, Miss Helen Kramer, Miss Clara Ellen Wolfe, Miss Beatrice Lemon, Miss Betty Noblet, Miss Lavena Kable, Miss Betty Johnson, Miss Martha Venable, Miss Frances Thompson, Harold Person, Earl Holt, James Stephenson, Frederick Schneider, and Raymond Harris.

The afternoon was spent in visiting classes and making tours of the Campus. The dads were guests of their sons and daughters at the Maryville-Springfield football game Friday night.

The same play that was enacted in assembly on Dad's Day was one of the three one-act plays given by the Senior class of 1921 in which Mr. Charles Wells played the part of the husband, Miss Minnie James played opposite him as the wife, and Miss Blanche Dow took the part of the maid.

Miss Buby Harstine, former instructor in the Fine Arts department of the College, is now on the staff of the Nelson Art Gallery in Kansas City and is conducting a class in textiles.

Mr. Fred Keller, president, called the annual meeting of the directors of the Credit Union held in the Methodist church parlors at five o'clock, preceding the dinner for the Knights of the Hickory Stick.

become popular, will come to Maryville as a recognized leader of the church. He was one of the most prominent leaders at the World Conference on Faith and Order held at Luassane, Switzerland, in August, 1927.

Recently, when Dr. Cadman celebrated his silver jubilee as pastor of the Brooklyn church, his congregation gave him a purse of $25,000, a sum of $1,000 for each year he had served the church.

Dr. Cadman has written several volumes on religion, among which are "The Victory of Christmas," and "The Religious Uses of Memory."

One of the popular speakers in the field of education is Dr. Boyd H. Bode of Ohio University. He is a graduate of Penn College, the University of Michigan, and has his Ph. D., from Cornell University. He has served on the faculty of the University of Wisconsin, University of Illinois, and is now professor of education at Ohio State University.

Mr. Bode is author of a number of books, his best known being, "An Outline of Logic," and "Fundamentals of Education."

Alva L. Allen of the Chillicothe public schools, who is president of the Northwest Missouri Teachers Association, will give the opening address. He will also preside over the program. Mr. Allen is a former Harrison county superintendent of schools.

John Krambeck Dies Suddenly

thought his cold was bordering on pneumonia.

Johnnie had had pneumonia previously, and did not want to go to the hospital. He expressed his desire to play in the Springfield game to Coach Davis, Friday. President Uel W. Lamkin and Coach Davis spent Friday night with Krambeck.

Krambeck's father, Mr. John Krambeck, came to Maryville from Atlantic Friday night when he was notified of his son's condition.

When the Bearcats went upon the field against Springfield last Friday night, they were determined to win for their comrade who was lying ill in the hospital. Krambeck never knew of the victory. Among Johnnie's last recognizable words were: "Coach, I wanted so much to make your team."

John Krambeck was born at Atlantic, Iowa, December 2, 1918. He played football three years at Atlantic high school, winning a position as all-star tackle on the Hawkeye Six conference team. He was the only son of John Krambeck. He had no sisters, and his mother is dead.

Members of the football squad went to Atlantic last Monday morning and attended in a body the funeral services of Krambeck held at 1:30 p. m. The team was taken to Iowa in the College bus and in cars driven by coaches E. A. Davis and Wilbur Stalcup, and W. T. Montgomery and William Todd.

Funeral services were held from an Atlantic funeral home. Reserved seats were occupied by members of the Bearcat football team and also by members of the Atlantic high school team. Johnnie's friends in Atlantic acted as pall-bearers. A large crowd of friends and relatives attended the funeral to pay final tribute to their friend, John Krambeck.

Mr. Charles A. Lee, former state school superintendent, now a member of the faculty of Washington University in St. Louis, spoke during the 10 o'clock session. He also spoke yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

W. H. Burr, county school superintendent, who was in charge of the meeting, announced the following program:

Education Trends for Half Century

third trend is away from federal control of schools. This is done by the government simply contributing money on an objective basis without any strings tied to it.

"The fourth trend is a definite move away from formality in schools. Socrates taught in the markets. He believed that life, teaching and learning were to be united. We have taken school away from life. But today there is a trend of bringing the school-room and life together. Today the emphasis is on the child and not the subject matter."

HALF-HOUR MUSICAL

Members of the faculty of the Conservatory of Music will provide musical entertainment for the students Tuesday evening, October 22, in Social Hall, when they will conduct the first Half-Hour Musicales program of the year. Miss Marian Kerr, instructor of piano in the Conservatory, will be presented.

Miss Kerr will play the following numbers: "Andante and Allegro" from Italian Concerto—Bach; "Impromptu in B Flat"—Schubert; "Barcarolle"—Chopin; "Tocatta"—Sgambati. All music lovers are urged to come and help make the first of these series a success.

...but, after all is said and done, it's the cigarette itself that counts

... the question is, does it suit you?

Now, when it comes to a cigarette that will suit you . . . you want to think whether it's mild, you want to think about the taste

That Chesterfields are milder and taste better is no accident . . .

The farmer who grows the tobacco, the warehouseman who sells it at auction to the highest bidder, every man who knows about leaf tobacco will tell you that it takes mild, ripe tobaccos to make a good cigarette.

In making Chesterfields we use mild ripe home-grown and Turkish tobaccos.
